Save the date for PHS gala

Plans are in the works for a Paulsboro High School Centennial Celebration Red-Tie Banquet and first annual induction of the PHS Hall of Distinguished Alumni on April 22, 2017.

The event culminates the high school's centennial celebration and will be held in the PHS gym.

Check out the PHS website for more details on the gala and updates on other planned activities to mark the school's 100th anniversary.

For additional information, call Terry Croce at (856) 423-5515, ext. 1236.

For sale: Centennial magnets, patches, and commemorative pins for $5 each at the school's administration building during school hours, or call the telephone number above to place an order.

Red Raiders win 18th sectional title

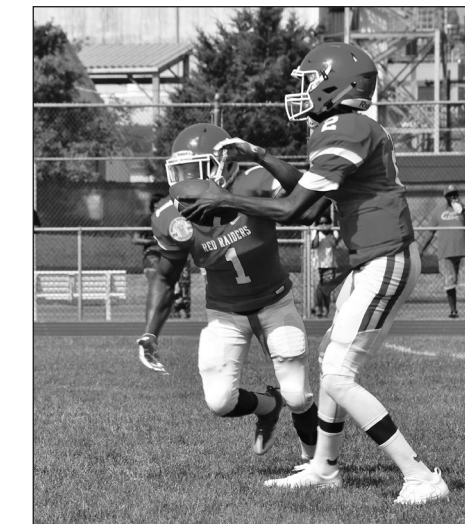

By Steve Anuszewski

The Paulsboro High School football team won the South Jersey Group I Championship as its defense stopped a very potent Salem team by a 29-26 margin.

It is the 18th sectional championship in Paulsboro history, the most by any South Jersey school. The playoff game was held at Rowan University on Dec. 3.

The Red Raiders trailed late in the second quarter 20-7, but scored three more times and the defense stopped Salem star running back Jonathon Taylor in the second half.

PHS quarterback Kyle Jones threw two touchdown passes, a 48 yarder to Emmanuel Simon and a 14

A dream come true — Backed by a strong community fan base, the PHS football team kept moving forward after its first game loss against Woodbury on Sept. 10 to capture the championship title on Dec. 3. Above, Dehron Holloway (1) takes the ball from Kyle Jones during the Woodbury game when all these photos were taken.
