

Hometown Happenings

2016 PHS Homecoming Court — Homecoming king, Joey Perez, stands behind queen, Alexis Corrdetti (center) for a group pose, following their crowning at a pep rally in the gym on Oct. 28 to kick off the weekend festivities. In the front row, left to right, are Haley Mogar, Cierra Corbin, Corrdetti, Branasha Melvins, and Nia Nelson; standing, Kyle Jones, Matt Pettinichio, Perez, Emmanuel Simon, and Eli Ramos.

PHS alumni band — Former players reconnected to perform during homecoming weekend in celebration of the high school's 100th anniversary. The group played with the current band during homecoming activities, including the pep rally, parade down Delaware Street and football game. Match their names and class year on page 9.

Photos by Teresa Colanero

RIZZO FAMILY CHIROPRACTIC CENTER

Chiropractic can help with PINCHED NERVES that may result in:

- ✓ Arthritis
- ✓ Back Pain
- ✓ Sciatica
- ✓ Shoulder Pain
- ✓ Leg and Knee Pain
- ✓ Tight muscles
- ✓ Neck Pain
- ✓ Headaches/Migraines

Gibbstown Shopping Center (ShopRite)
I-295 Exit 17, Gibbstown, NJ
856.224.0300

Dr. Raymond Filipponi Podiatrist
Mary Ann Leslie Certified Massage Therapist
Chiropractic Health and Wellness,
One Patient at a Time!

Photo by Teresa Colanero

Dr. Karen Rizzo
Chiropractor

Hometown Happenings

1.

4.

2.

Paulsboro Day 2016
1. Matteo DiCrocce of Paulsboro rides Coco. 2. Merry-go-round operator Frank Maurone of Mantua cools off alongside Stoney, the party llama. 3. Lauren Walter of Paulsboro takes a spin on a ride. 4. PHS senior Samson Beaver signs his children's book, The Legend of the Firemarth, for Amber Dickinson. 5. Gill Memorial librarian Violet Valentin (red shirt) and volunteer, Jim Pratt, visit with Bea Weiss (seated left) and Bee Flain in front of a collection of PHS yearbooks at a community exhibit sponsored by the library and PHS Centennial Celebration Committee.

3.

5.

Photos by Teresa Colanero

Photo by Teresa Colanero

A solemn salute — A memorial service for Cpl. Carmel S. Morina, who died in the Korean War in 1951 at the age of 23, was held on Sept. 3 at the Order of the Sons of Italy Lodge 2580 in Paulsboro. To observe the 65th anniversary of his death, about 100 people, including dignitaries from local, county and state government, family members and friends, attended the service. Standing in front of the lodge are, left to right, (first row) Mary Morina, Paul Morina, Carmella Morina, Joe Morina, Angie Morina Robostello, Mary Morina, and Linda Morina Coleman; (second row) Carmel Morina and Paul Morina; and (third row) Carmel Morina and Nick Morina.

Photo p. 1 Participants in any PHS sport over the last 100 years line up by decade behind class signs for a half-time march on the track during the Nov. 4 night home football game under lights against Lindenwold. Held to honor past athletes, the event is just one of the ongoing centennial celebration activities. The Red Raiders beat the Lions, 40 to 8.

Photo p.8 PHS alumni band members kneeling, left to right, are Paul Thompson, '73; Pat Isaac Murschell, '64; Ellen Weiss Freyman, '73; Judy Rosen Plon, '73; Debbie Rosen Tartell, '76; standing, Steve Johnson '73; John Hurst, '76; Doral Kay Schwan Link, '56; Glenn Roemmich, '79; Joan Driver, '63; Phyllis Hitchner Speakman, '63; Gene Bay, '59; Laura Vaczi Hance, '79; Kathy Vaczi Shawaryn, '77; and Joe Sepielli, '77. Other members not pictured include Melissa Lexa, '04; Mark Montemore, '64; Jenna Davis Ouellette, '03; and Kathy Schwan Vaczi, '59.