

Sandra Quinn
Asst. Vice President, Branch Manager

Delivering more every day

Century has over 150 years of experience delivering what's really important – supporting our community and local businesses with time-tested expertise; top-notch banking products - like mobile banking* - and merchant services; plus the local, personal service that generations of our neighbors and fellow businesses have come to rely on.

Maybe that's why we are one of America's oldest banks.

844.9CSB4ME |  centurysb.com

* Third party message/data rates may apply.

FREE — Courtesy of our Advertisers

The Record Today

An all-volunteer newspaper
Serving Paulsboro, Gibbstown & surrounding communities

Vol. 11, No. 45

therecordtoday.com

Winter 2017

Happy Holidays

Photos by Teresa Colanero

A night of celebration — Above, Ashley Stewart and her daughter, Leah, attend the annual holiday tree lighting in Paulsboro on Dec. 2. Below, members of the Red Raider football team join the festivities after defeating Penns Grove, 34-24. The win earns the team its third South Jersey Group 1 title in four years and 19th sectional title. See more sports coverage on page 11.

Inside this issue

Pride & Tradition — Above, PHS Homecoming King Wyatt Hinkle and Queen Caitlin Russella ride in the homecoming parade, while Jacob Perez-Eli, center right, joins teammates before the football game against Haddon Heights on Oct. 21. The Red Raiders win 42-14.

Photos by Teresa Colanero

Go Big Red — Members of the PHS Class of 1977 and their family members cheer for the Red Raiders at the homecoming football game on Oct. 21 as part of their weekend 40th high school reunion celebration. In the first row, left to right, are Fran Pinizzotto, Isabel Veiga Fernandes, Bill Vassalotti, and Kaitlynn Shawaryn; second row, Marielena Chiavoroli Brown, Kathy Dentino Brown, Joe Sepielli, Kathy Vaczi Shawaryn, and Laura Vaczi Hance; third row, Darrell Hampton, Anthony Crimi and Karla Crimi. See more alumni class photos on pages 6 & 7.