The Green Corner By Kaitlynn Shawaryn

Incorporate these six tips for a greener holiday season.

1. Decorate with LED light strands to save energy.
2. Recycle old holiday bags for gifts this year.
3. Look for items made out of recycled materials, such as New Year calendars.
4. Fix leaky faucets before guests come over to reduce water usage.
5. Add a poinsettia or winter house plant to help clean inside air.
6. Go paperless, and pay bills online to reduce paper.

PHS Class Reunions

Pride and tradition continue — Members of three classes celebrating reunions this year participated in homecoming activities, including the student pep rally on Oct. 20, and parade from the Paulsboro Firehouse to PHS, guided school tour, and football game on Oct. 21.
